

YOU'RE BILIOUS! LET "CASCARETS" LIVE IN LIVER AND BOWELS

Don't stay headachy, constipated with breath bad and stomach sour

Get a 10-cent box now. You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

There is no better investment for a business man than judicious newspaper advertising.

AMERICAN MILLIONS ARE DEVELOPING CHILEAN MINES

"Big business" interests of the United States have for some time been making large investments in various Latin-American countries, particularly in mining enterprises in South America. The huge scale upon which some of these ventures have been projected is brought out in an article in the August number of the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union, Washington, D. C., contributed by Mr. John Paul Bushnell, formerly of Washington but now located at Chuquicamata, Chile.

Among the enterprises enumerated are the Armour packing plants in Argentina; the Dupont nitrate mines in Chile; the Bethlehem Steel company's immense iron mines near Coquimbo, Chile; the Morgan interests in the Cerro de Pasco Copper company's mines in Peru; the Braden Copper company's extensive copper plant at Rancagua, near Santiago, Chile; and last, but perhaps greatest of all, the Guggenheim corporation, known as the Chile Exploration company, now completing the gigantic copper industry at Chuquicamata, near the town of Calama, on the Antofagasta railway.

The mineral region of Chuquicamata is situated in the barren Chilean "pampa," 150 miles from the port of Antofagasta, at an altitude of 9,500 feet, and 40 miles from the snow-capped peaks of the Andes. The existence of the ore body has long been known, and in fact have been worked on the surface for many generations by the natives; also to a small extent by English companies. It is a large body of disseminated ore of considerable length and breadth and of unknown depth. Samples taken at 1,200 feet below the surface show copper in greater quantities than near the surface. The actual superficial area showing copper covers more than 150 acres.

Numerous mining and engineering problems presented themselves, some on account of the character of the ore and others on account of the location. The electrolytic process for obtaining the copper being decided upon, a tremendous amount of electrical power was required. Owing to the scarcity of rivers or water from

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try this. Hair gets thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful at Once.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light wavy, fluffy, abundant and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

Cold Settled in my Stomach.

Lost My Appetite. Could Not Sleep. All Remedies Failed.

Took Peruna. Am Cured. Peruna A Great Family Medicine.

Mr. Chas. Sauerbier, 815 Main street, St. Joseph, Mich., a constant friend of Peruna, Uses it in his Family.

any source in this immediate section, it was found necessary to build a power plant on the coast at Tocopilla and to carry the power of 110,000 volts by a transmission line of 100 miles in length to the mill site at Chuquicamata. Incidentally new types of towers and insulators were devised by the company's experts, who also overcame the problems attendant on the quick temperature rises and the high altitude. Water for general as well as for domestic use was made available by the building of many pipe lines from the mountain streams of the Andes and pumping it long distances to the storage tanks of the property. The waters of these streams, however, are not potable, because of the great amount of nitrate in the soil through which they pass, and consequently the drinking water has to be brought by tank cars from springs at Paniri and Tatlo in Bolivia. The mill is three-quarters of a mile from the mine proper and is connected therewith by a railroad of standard gauge which uses large locomotives of the latest type, imported from the United States.

According to Mr. Bushnell, the mining camp is a model of its kind. Careful attention has been given to the living conditions and accommodations of the employees. There are now about 350 North Americans and Europeans and more than 3,000 natives housed on the property. To meet the question of sanitation efficiency the company secured the services of one of Gen. Gorgas' staff at Panama. Policing is done by a company of carabinieri, the mounted police of Chile, who have quarters at the camp. Many plans have been laid for the betterment of camp life. Spacious club houses for both North Americans and natives are to be provided with billiard rooms, swimming pools, etc.; schoolhouses and churches are being erected; trees and gardens are to be supplied; streets and roads are to be improved, and an extensive farm where fresh vegetables, fruits, etc., will be raised for the direct consumption of the employees is to be added. The cost of the great undertaking has been enormous, and that before a pound of commercial copper could be produced. It has been a daring enterprise, but the plant stands today a complete success, a new departure in the production of copper, a model mining camp, and one of the greatest copper producing industries of the world.

Making a Rug "Antique."

How "genuine antique rugs" are manufactured and prepared for European and American markets is told by a writer who visited Bagdad.

The shopping streets seem like tunnels, he writes. They are arched overhead with brick to keep out the heat; thus they run, like subways, up and down the bazaar quarter. Through those long, stifling, faintly lighted tunnels throngs the eternal crowd of men, mules and camels. Often you will see a fine rug lying flat in the filth of a narrow street, ground beneath the tramp of men and beasts; but there is method in this. Foreigners make Oriental rugs, bright and new, in Persia, and sell them through Bagdad. Since an "old rug" is worth more, wily brokers have hit on this shameful way to make a new rug look old.—National Geographic Magazine.

"When a Feller Needs a Friend—"

He needs one badly, and especially when sickness invades the home, or if he is about to get married. Upon the latter occasion he is not at all suspicious of his friends, and his too confiding spirit receives a huge jolt as did a certain colored individual yesterday morning.

It seems that he had made up his mind to get married, and after due deliberation, entrusted a ten-dollar bill to a friend, with instructions to secure the necessary credentials while in the city Friday.

When the friend returned to the neighborhood of Wild Horse, he informed the would-be benedict that there was nothing doing; the license had been refused, and handed the ten-spot back to him.

Yesterday morning the party of the first part came to the city for a personal investigation, and when the records were scanned it was found that the license had been issued to the party of the second part, who, at the time, had said license in his pocket, and perhaps put it to his own personal use before the originator of the trouble could return to his home and interpose an objection.

It won't do to trust a friend too far, when a marriage is about to take place. Many a bride has been snatched from the altar by "the other fellow."

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENTS

Central Body in Each State a Requirement to Federal Aid.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Just a half dozen of the forty-eight states have yet to establish highway departments. Indiana is one of the six. The Hoosier State Automobile association has gone to work in earnest in an effort to segregate the strength of the automobilists and take in diana out of the list. According to Secretary H. W. Patton, the A. A. A. state body soon will be organized in every county, the most recent additions being the following clubs: Montgomery, Madison, Howard, Bedford, Wabash, Warrick, Delaware and Miami.

Of course, the Hoosier Motor club of Indianapolis, of which Fred I. Willis, president of the local chamber of commerce, has just been elected the head, figures as the hub of this state-wide effort on the part of motor car owners to place Indiana in a position where she will be able to accept federal co-operation in the improvement of roads. It seems to be generally recognized that any bill which the congress of the United States will pass is likely to include a requisite that a state shall first establish a highway department in order to have a centralized direction in construction and maintenance of roads.

At the recent meeting of its executive board, the American Automobile association went on record as favoring a federal aid in good roads measure which has been drafted by the executive committee of the American Association of State Highway Officials. Briefly the bill provides for national and state cooperation on what ever roads may be mutually decided upon, with the state matching every federal dollar it receives on the basis of its area, population, and road mileage in proportion to the total for the whole country.

Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Nebraska, and Texas, are the five states, besides Indiana, which have yet to recognize the need of a state highway department.
